

COOKIE POLICY

About our online security and cookies

Cookies are small text files that are placed on your device by websites that you visit. Websites use cookies to help users navigate efficiently and perform certain functions. Cookies that are required for the website to operate properly are allowed to be set without your permission. All other cookies need to be approved before they can be set in the browser.

Different pages of our website use different cookies. More details of these can be found below.

You can change your consent to cookie usage at any time on our cookie section at the bottom of this page.

Go to www.allaboutcookies.org to find out more about website cookies.

Refusing cookies

Most browsers allow you to refuse to accept cookies. Some web browsers automatically accept cookies, but you can usually modify your browser setting to decline cookies if you prefer. This will prevent you from taking full advantage of the website.

For more information about how to do this via your web browser, please review your browser settings/security sections.

Blocking cookies will alter the usability of our website. You'll also be unable to get a quote if cookies are turned off.

You can also manage the cookies via the cookie settings section that shows at the bottom of our web page.

Cookies we use

The sections below show the different categories of cookies that we use. This information also shows how long the cookie will remain on your device and provides a brief description.

Session cookies expire once you log off or close the browser. They are only stored temporarily and are destroyed after leaving the page.

Strictly Necessary cookies

Strictly necessary cookies allow core website functionality such as user login, security and account management. The website cannot be used properly without strictly necessary cookies.
